DEDICATION

"Walk together, talk together, all ye people of the earth, then and only then shall ye have peace" is the motto of the American Field Service. Although the ultimate goal of the AFS is world peace, the program prompts a cultural exchange, an awareness that the United States is not the only or best country, and a student-to-student understanding of the people of different lands.

The Sunny Hills chapter of the American Field Service sponsored two foreign students for the '64-'65 academic year. From Matsushiro, Japan, came Yoshimi Yamamoto. Yoshimi, only 4'11" and 100 pounds, competed with 2,000 other Japanese students who applied for an AFS scholarship. She was one of 120 who came to the United States. Although Yoshimi had studied English for six years, she had never spoken the language. At Sunny Hills she "tackled" United States history, civics, economics, speech, and English. Certainly Yoshimi's explanations of life in Japan and her comments and shy giggles about American "customs" have enriched any Lancer who knew her.

Krishen Mehta, from New Delhi, India, was the first male exchange student at Sunny Hills. Kris, not one for idle talk, was always probing to learn more. His keen interest in politics and sociology often led Kris into discussions and arguments. India has fourteen official languages and English is used in many schools. Kris has been speaking English since he was in the second grade. At Sunny Hills he studied civics, economics, trigonometry, drafting, English, and participated in sports.

Yoshimi and Krishen have taught us much about Japan and India and have taught us to appreciate and analyze our own country. But "Yoshi" and Kris have given us something more valuable—the opportunity to strengthen world understanding and friendship. For contributing to Sunny Hills that which neither teachers nor other students can donate, we dedicate the 1964-1965 Helios to Yoshimi Yamamoto and Krishen Mehta.

A high school is viewed from many vantage points. This is to be expected when one considers the size of this complex and dynamic organization and the impact on its individual members and on the surrounding community. With the closing of this, the sixth, year of development of growth and achievement at Sunny Hills, there emerges an increasingly definite overall image of the school and its program. Impressions are continually communicated to me of greater school spirit, of greater student responsibility, of an excellent instructional program, of high standards in achievement, and of genuine community support.

Indeed, we have built much of which to be proud in these few years and certainly each of us has contributed. As the school develops an image so will the students develop images of themselves as part of this organization. This personal image is probably the most important of all. Looking back upon this as a year of opportunity and the extent to which challenges have been met and conquered can indeed be revealing. I sincerely hope that each of you can look back upon this year of investment in your own behalf as fruitful and truly worthwhile.

As we bid this fourth graduation class farewell, it is only appropriate to extend to them the gratitude of those who follow. They have contributed much to the development of this school and its program

Yours truly,
Bert Hathaway

Administration and Counselors

MILTON D. ROBERTSON, Vice-Principal and Dean of Students

Seated: Mr. Fred Meier, Administrative Assistant, Mr. J. K. Smith, Dean of Counseling and Guidance, and Miss Helen Wiesseman, Dean of Instruction

The student body truly appreciated the able leadership of the administration and counselors this past year. Mrs. Thompson joined the counseling staff this year as freshman counselor. Mr. Bresee became full time senior counselor. Miss Wiesseman, Dean of Instruction, spent a great deal of time on a new grading policy for Sunny Hills' teachers. Mr. Smith, Dean of Counseling and Guidance, inaugurated the IBM registration of students as well as strengthening the policy of individual interviews with students and their parents. The entire counseling office expressed its gratitude to Mrs. Michel, a new secretary who helped them work more efficiently.

Senior Class Council

The Senior Class Council spent a busy year coordinating senior activities. The council conducted a vote for the site of the senior party and decided on the senior gift. Such topics as a senior picnic, senior playnight, and senior week were discussed.

One of the council's most important goals was to establish a precedent for future senior privileges. The members stressed use of the senior area by seniors exclusively and made plans to landscape the area and paint the senior bench

The juniors started this past year with a sweatshirt sale. This was their main money-raising activity for the Junior-Senior Prom. Other projects were several sales at the break, their playnight, and a carwash. Major events for the juniors were the ordering and receiving of their rings. These were their symbols of finally becoming "upperclassmen." All in all, the juniors had a profitable year and are looking forward to their senior year.

The class of '67 left behind a successful year. The sophomores will sponsor the 1966 Junior-Senior Prom, and they concentrated the year on raising money for that dance. Under the leadership of Mark Collins, they held food sales at the breaks and also a playnight. The sophomores supplied a few members of the varsity football team and the class of '67 showed its spirit for these boys and the whole school.

Although new to Sunny Hills High School, the freshman class started this past year right by winning the ASB card sale. This added another playnight, sponsored by the juniors, to the freshman activities of the year. For the first time at Sunny Hills, the freshman class had a class council. Members of the council were chosen by the class officers. Among their projects were food sales which proved profitable. The freshmen are looking forward to three more successful years at Sunny Hills.

ORGANIZATIONS

ASB PRESIDENT

Lancers,

During the 1964-65 school year, Sunny Hills High School took a long step down the road to maturity. As a relatively new school, we faced many difficult and challenging problems. Through an interested and informed student body, we were able to eliminate the majority of these problems. While our accomplishments have indeed been numerous, we must remember that success comes only through dedication and sacrifice. In the coming years, Lancers must remain dedicated to their ideals and goals. Let no future Lancer be afraid of dedication and sacrifice. They are the foundation of success and greatness.

Sunny Hills High School has all the characteristics of greatness. Sunny Hills has been acknowledged as one of the finest academic institutions in southern California. Sunny Hills has an administrative staff that can be equaled by none. Sunny Hills has one of the most beautiful campuses in the area. And Sunny Hills has excellent facilities for any type of athletic endeavor. There is no reason why Sunny Hills cannot become the finest high school anywhere. All Lancers must remember that a learning institution such as ours is only what we make it. The level of achievement which we attain rests solely upon our student body. Thus, Sunny Hills High School will be only as good as its students. As the years progress, I am sure that Sunny Hills will continue to climb up the ladder of success toward greatness.

It was a tremendous honor for us in student government to serve you, the Associated Student Body. On behalf of student government I wish all Lancers the best of luck in future years. Become responsible and mature students. Continue to have tremendous school spirit. Develop the pride necessary for a great school. And do not settle for anything less than the best.

Sincerely,
Bul Reinsch
ASB President

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council, one of the major links between the administration and the student body, coordinated all student activities into a smooth-running, efficient government. They worked in close connection with both the Student Senate and the Student Court to solve many campus problems. Meeting with the administration and keeping up with P.T.A. activities kept the Council well-informed on all activities and problems concerned with the student body. These problems include such things as littering the campus and smoking in the restrooms. In addition to their work during the school year, the Council drafted a new constitution for SHHS during the summer of 1964. The efforts of the Executive Council, along with those of the other branches of the student government, have helped to leave the next class with a sound foundation on which to build.

STUDENT SENATE

David Bennett
President

The 1964-65 senate made many gains in varying areas of student and campus activities. The greatest strides were made in the litter and smoking problems. Senators cited students for such offenses as crowding in line, smoking, and littering. The senate also passed a bill that made it possible for boys to wear bermudas to school.

Tom Walker, president pro tem, and Jon Hilgers, secretary, provided leadership to make the Student Senate an active campus organization.

Through Inter-Club Council, any club on campus could have a voice in student government. It was composed of one representative from each club desiring representation. They met about every two months to discuss problems common to all of the clubs and to plan projects to be carried out during the school year. Some of these projects included putting lettering on the announcement case, painting the trash cans, and pooling the funds of all clubs to raise money to carry out ICC projects. The main purpose of ICC was to create a closer relationship between the students and their government through representation of the clubs in the government.

Girl of

The Girl of the Month is a program coordinated by Girls' League for honoring a previously unrecognized girl. Each month, girls are nominated by students and teachers, and a committee makes the selection. The selection is based upon academic achievement, personality, and extra-curricular activities. The girls are chosen because they are representative of the ideal female student at SHHS.

November

Cheering the football team to victory is Linda Jarchow, November Girl of the Month.

As a sophomore, Linda was a member of the sophomore class council and the NFL. She served on the decorations committee of the Junior-Senior Prom during her junior year. She also painted posters as an active participant of the Pep Club.

Linda's senior year was filled with extra-curricular activities. She was the secretary of the ASB assembly committee and a sports editor of the annual. As a Pep Club member, she organized the boys' sports banquets. On the ASB publicity committee, the school showcase was her responsibility. Active on the ASB social committee, Linda made decorations for Homecoming, Spring, and Girl Date dances.

Linda's hobbies include sewing all of her own clothes and swimming. A great fan of spectator sports, Linda prefers football and baseball. Presently her future plans are indefinite, but she hopes to teach or to be a physical therapist.

December

Santa listens attentively to December Girl of the Month, Chris Merlo.

Chris' academic record at SHHS is excellent. She has been a member of CSF since her freshman year and was secretary for the first semester of her junior year.

During her freshman year, Chris was the Girls' League Freshman Representative. Her duties included: heading the freshman PE representative council, publicizing the Girl Date Dance, decorating for the Father-Daughter banquet, selling Hush Day tickets, and attending two Girls' League conventions at La Habra and Ventura High Schools. With her council of PE representatives, she sold candy canes at Christmas time for the Girls' League treasury.

As a sophomore, Chris worked at the CSF Book Fair and competed in the Journalistic Tournament at Santa Ana High School. She won ninth place in feature writing. Chris also became a member of the Lancelles, the drill team.

During her junior year, Chris was a member of the Junior-Senior Prom decorations committee and the junior Girls' League PE representative council. She also performed on the drill team and will continue during her senior year.

Chris enjoys sewing and listening to Peter, Paul, and Mary. She also likes to swim and to acquire a sun tan.

the Month

March

Demonstrating kite-flying techniques is the March Girl of the Month—Stephanie Elwell.

As a freshman, Stephanie devoted most of her "leisure" time to the National Forensics League. She competed in several local speech tournaments in the extemporaneous and debate categories. The highlight of her speech experiences was her qualifying for the State Tournament at Santa Barbara with four other SHHS students.

Although she claims that she is not very domestic, Stephanie does a lot of sewing and cooking. She enjoys playing pool despite the fact that she has only done it once. She also likes outdoor activities, especially walking and swimming.

Stephanie's future includes plans to become more active in student government and school clubs. She also would like to tour Europe with a group of teen-agers on bicycles. Someday she hopes to study dramatic arts or teaching.

Girl of the Year

During her freshman year, Carolyn was a member of the Future Teachers, Y-Teens, German Club, GAA, and the Girls' League Dress Board. She also sang in the talent assembly.

As a sophomore, she joined History Club, GAA, German Club, Y-Teens, and the Girls' League Dress Board.

Carolyn became Girls' League Junior Representative and German Club president during her junior year. She also served as Y-Teens publicity chairman, History Club vice-president, and was selected as a semi-finalist for the AFS student abroad. She worked on the Girls' League Dress Board and was one of four girls in Southern California selected to program the Y-Teens Convention at California Lutheran College.

Her senior year kept Carolyn busy. She was chairman of the AFS assembly, president of the History Club, service chairman of Y-Teens, and a member of the Girls' League Dress Board.

Carolyn sews almost all her own clothes and greatly enjoys the thrills of mountain climbing. She and her father reached the peaks of Mt. Whitney and Mt. Lassen. Carolyn took voice lessons, and she performed in the concert choir for three years.

Studying at Whittier College and later teaching school and joining the Peace Corps are included in Carolyn's future plans.

Carolyn Wohlfarth was selected as the Girl of Year at SHHS for 1965.

Music Club has given much of its time to school services. They have sold refreshments at the break and at football and basketball games. However, the purpose of the club, as stated by the president, Bill Dickenson, is to "further enrich the interest of its members in music." The club planned several field trips, one of which was a trip to the Melodyland Theater to hear a concert of the Orange County Symphony Orchestra.

Art Club

Art Club devoted much time to the displaying of its members' works. They have worked on several projects, including the Christmas display and the caricatures of the teachers, which have been displayed in the teachers' lounge. The purpose of the club is to give any student who wishes it the chance to display his talent. Under the direction of their adviser, Mr. Spitler, and their president, Jeannie Freeland, the Art Club also planned several field trips.

Under the leadership of their new adviser, Mr. James Crippen, Key Club made the 1964-65 school year their most productive and worthwhile of their short career, according to Jon Hilgers, president. Not only did the school, but the entire community benefitted from the various drives and projects sponsored by the club.

The boys were active in such community projects as collecting clothes and school equipment for the needy in flood-ravaged northern California, presenting gifts and Christmas parties at the Albert Silton Home and the Orange County General Hospital, conducting programs for the Fullerton Youth Museum, selling AFS Bonds, and participating in the "Meals for Millions" overseas program. Other activities included their spring concert at school and competition in the March district music festival at Fullerton Junior College. Many students have furthered their interests and talents in music by performing with this group.

One of the more colorful aspects of Sunny Hills has been the Lancer Marching Band. Under a new music director, Mr. Gary Lines, the band executed several half-time shows, ranging in theme from the 1890 Chicago World's Fair to "Pins and Pens." The band also presented a concert in December and planned to attend the District Music Festival in the spring. They participated in several school events including the Christmas assembly. They also marched in parades with the drill team and their auxiliary groups. The band has contributed to the increased spirit and pride of the student body in their school.

LANCELLES

Doing things a different way seemed to be a keynote to the 1964-1965 Lancelles. The entire group participated in organizing the routines for the four half-time shows. For the first time the drill team used precision drills as part of their performances. Another novelty was that there were co-leaders instead of one leader

Football

The Lancer football team, under the leadership of its new head coach, Cecil Crow, compiled the second best record in the school's history as it finished with a 3-6 record and placed third in league. Assisting Coach Crow were back coach Garner Barnett, line coach Wayne Payne and end coach Don Larson.

After losing their first three games, the Lancers rebounded with a 26-13 drubbing of Villa Park. Next, the Lancers suffered a one point loss to the eventual Crestview League champions, Santiago. The team bounced back as it upset one of the league favorites, Rancho Alamitos, 7-0. It was the first shutout in over three seasons. Next on the line was the Homecoming contest with Tustin, which proved to be victorious for the Lancers as they came through with an exciting 19-13 victory.

The team was co-captained by Jon Hilgers and Bob White. Hilgers was named the most valuable player while Wayne Redfearn was selected as the most improved player. Skip Allen also received recognition as the most inspirational player of the year.

Three players were selected for the all-league team this year. Among them was senior Wayne Redfearn, who was selected as offensive right end. The two others were juniors Bob Hawk and Larry MacDuff as offensive center and defensive left end, respectively.

MacDuff and Bob Hiskey will co-captain next year's team.

Varsity Ties for Fifth

Cross country 1964 might be termed a building year as juniors dominated the varsity squad that tied with Magnolia for the fifth place berth in the Crestview League. Only three senior lettermen, John Carlisle, Carl Loeffelhardt, and George Wickman, returned from the 1963 team that finished third in league. This year's squad was co-captained by two seniors, Jim Follett and George Wickman. Doug Elwell managed the combined varsity and junior varsity team and veteran coach Bill Lingenfelder put the distance-men through training and meets. Jim Flint, a junior who crossed the finish line first for the Lancers three times and second twice, was voted the most valuable player.

The varsity squad saved itself from a lonely cellar in the league finals. They had lost to Magnolia, 23-32, on the final Friday of dual competition, but on the following Wednesday the Lancers placed in front of the Sentinels to prompt the tie. In cross country the low score wins. The first five finishers from each school determine the tallying. If one team would sweep the first five places, for instance, they would have 15 points. The places taken are simply added.

To be in shape for the weekly two-mile races and daily workouts of up to eight miles, cross country sportsmen must work out during the summer. This involves daily running around town, on the track, and through the hills. Sunny Hills' course includes a series of hills and was the site of the CIF prelims. The races start at the south end of the track and continue one-half mile completely around the athletic field. But that is just the start. The route crosses the baseball diamond in the Hughes recreation area and winds through two hills on the Hughes' property. The race concludes with another lap of the athletic field for the two-mile total.

"Don't let them break away, and then catch them on the hills" Coach Bill Lingenfelder gives senior Chris Spurney a few hints just before the varsity run against Santiago. The visiting Cavaliers won 16-39 in the league meet.

Jim Follett and Jim Flint stride it out after their first half mile before hitting the hills beyond the track. Sunny Hills' two mile course is considered the toughest Crestview League route.

Clark Jordan recuperates in the chute after a gruelling run against La Habra. Clark, a junior, finished third for the Lancers.

Coach Bill Lingenfelder talks to three of his varsity runners, Carl Loeffelhardt, Jim Follett, and Clark Jordan, before the start of the La Habra race. The Highlanders beat the Lancers, 20-41.

Chris Spurney and Phil Fortin prove that size is not the deciding factor for cross country success.

Among those honored at the Fall Sports Banquet were Jim Follett and George Wickman, varsity cross country captains, and Jim Flint, who was voted the most valuable player by the varsity team.

Never has Sunny Hills had a basketball team with so much determination, drive, team-work, talent and success. The 1964-65 varsity squad left behind a season that will be hard to equal or surpass. They started out by beating Fullerton and went on to take second place in the La Habra Christmas tournament and the semi-finals consolation round of the many-teamed Covina tournament. Entering league with an 11-4 record, the varsity played to the wild and happy cheering of the Sunny Hills crowds, crowds that even filled the gym on Tuesday afternoon games. But after three straight league wins, the Lancers were defeated by Rancho and La Habra, a pattern that repeated itself in the second round of play. In that final round the Lancers needed a win over La Habra to have a shot at a CIF berth, but the Highlanders won in the last 30 seconds of the game to smother CIF hopes.

Captains Darrell Albers and Bill Reinsch were the two big men for the team. Junior guard Larry Comstock was the club's speedy play-maker who totaled 187 season points. Bill Brehm, the other junior on the squad, developed a deadly shot from the corner. Often exploding for 15 points, Bill hit 43% from the floor and totaled 201 points. Center Alan Jackley was second only to Albers in the rebound department and also amassed 148 points. Chuck Westgate's 61% free throw average and 47% field goal average added to the squads scoring punch. Sunny Hills' talented starters were backed by one of the league's strongest benches. Steve Hartshorn saw a lot of late season action, and guards Jim DuHamel and Bob Robbins both played over 30 quarters. Frank Cox, Mike Frost, Chuck Humphreys, Wayne Redfearn, and Tom VanHorne rounded out the team that averaged 69.5 points a game and ran up a 17-8 season record.

Coach Russ Hawk is flanked by his two varsity captains, Darrell Albers and Bill Reinsch, two of the reasons for Sunny Hills' record-breaking and win-studded year. Darrell, "Mr. Inside," is securely in the record books. He topped every major scoring and rebounding department for the season. Darrell averaged 48% from the floor, sank 67% from the free throw line, picked off 115 offensive rebounds and 132 defensive rebounds, and scored a record 38 points against La Habra. Darrell averaged 18.9 points a game, and his 471 point total surpasses the previous school record by 186 points. Voted most valuable player by his teammates, the senior was also honored as a member of the Crestview League first team.

Bill Reinsch, "Mr. Outside," is also securely in Sunny Hills basketball history. Second only to Darrell, Bill hit 40% from the floor and 60% from the line. His 10.4 game average added up to 262 points for the season. The senior guard was voted to the all league second team.

JV Basketball

Led by Terry Hackett and Bill Ensign, the junior varsity basketball squad won 80% of their non-league games but had to settle for a third place (5-5) finish in the tough Crestview League. After knocking off Fullerton in the first contest of the year, the JV's stayed on the path and defeated seven of their next eight opponents. La Habra finished first in the league standings and was the only league foe the Lancers did not defeat at least once. Sunny Hills and Rancho tied for third behind Magnolia.

Gary Gentry, Bill Purvis, Shannon Rhodes and Gene Fernandez usually rounded out the starting line-up. Mike Phillips, Kendall Mills and Mike Dehn supplied most of the bench power. Bill Ensign was the season's high scorer with 304 points. Captain Terry Hackett tallied 214 points during the season. Coached by Hal Wallace and managed by Paul Mitchell and Scott Stewart, the JV team compiled an over-all record of 13-7.

Bill Morgan and Gary Gentry struggle for a rebound in the Buena Park game which the Lancers won, 68-47.

Although they beat La Habra in both meetings, the Bee basketball squad tied with the Highlanders for the Crestview League title. In non-league games, the Bee team lost only to Santa Ana Valley as they carried a 17-2 record to the final game of the season against Rancho. The Vaqueros, however, edged the Lancers in overtime, 48-46, to prompt the first place tie with La Habra.

Coach Martin's squad was led by Bill Cords, most valuable player, and regular high scorer. Captain Russ Lowe was the team's regular center. John Hughes, Bob Case, Nick Bowman, and Vic Starow were other key men. Buck Young managed the champion Bees.

The Varsity baseball team was short on seniors, but they didn't lack talent. Junior Rick Raczka led the hitters with a .500 pre-league average and five home runs. Two other juniors, Terry Hackett (.400) and Bill Purvis (.375) added hitting power. Three returning lettermen were; Vince Jones, first base; Tom Everly, shortstop; Gary Bone, second base. Danny Kavanaugh at third and Bob Hawk behind the plate rounded out the infield. Bill Purvis, Larry MacDuff and Terry Hackett were outfield regulars. Bob Robbins and Rick Raczka usually rotated pitching duties. The Lancer squad was managed by Doug Elwell, coached by Bob Baar, and assisted by a new pitching machine.

Bob Robbins rounds third and heads for home in the Santa Ana game. The score ended 5-5 as action was halted because of darkness.

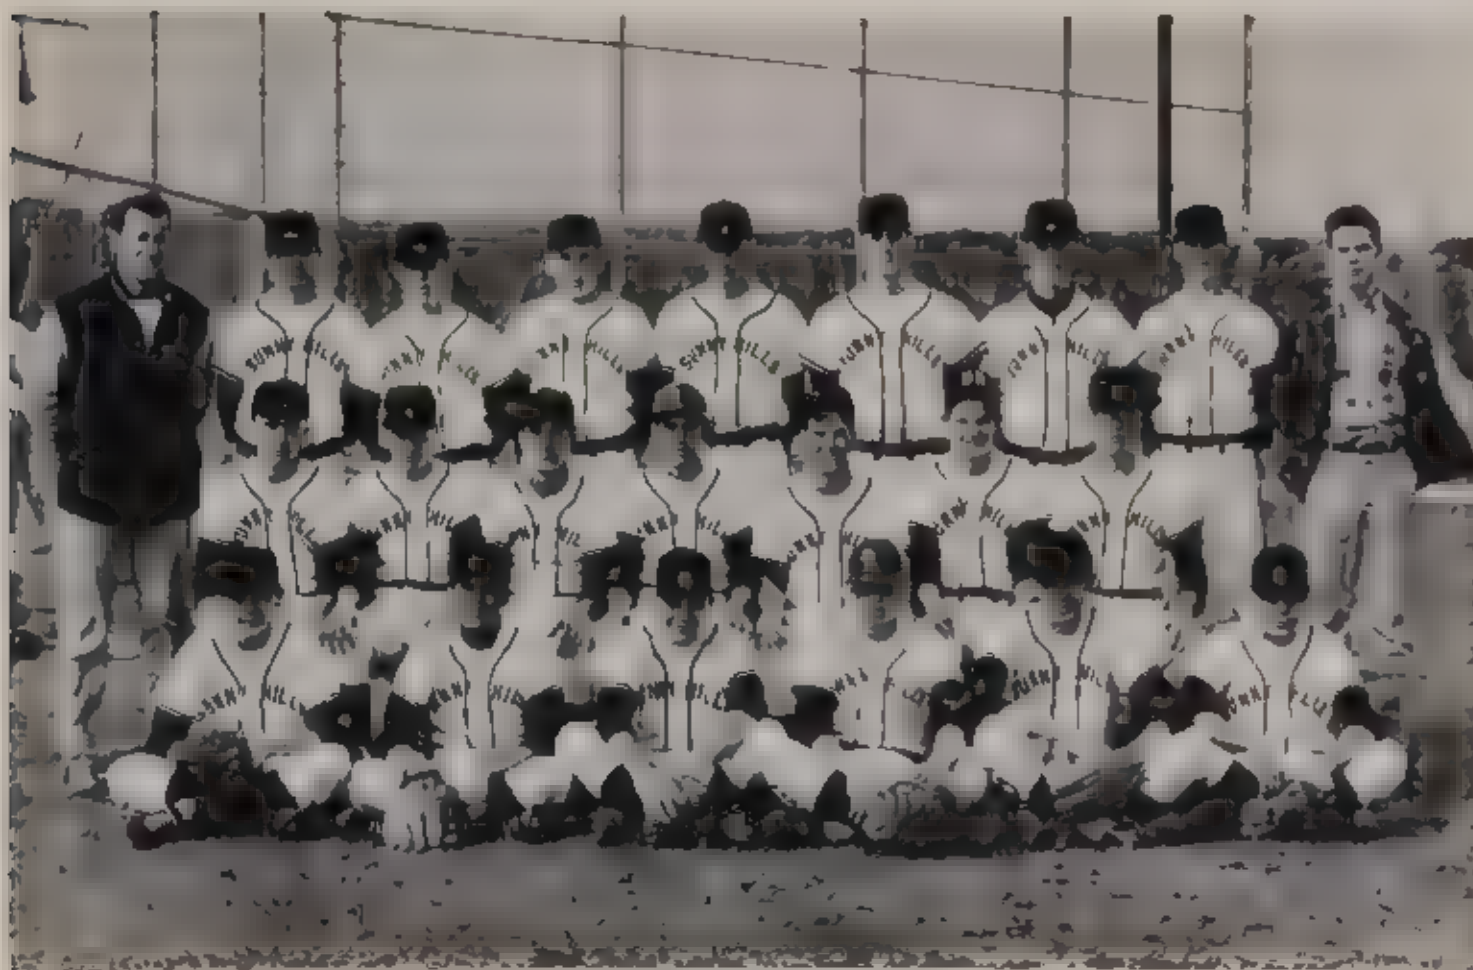

Bob Hawk dives back to first base to beat the pitcher's pick-off throw. The Lancer Varsity went on to defeat Buena Park.

For the Varsity squad, senior Chris Spurney set a new school record in the high hurdles and was rated one of the outstanding performers in the county in that event. Rated the best in his event in Orange County, Dave Murphy broke the school shot put record. Other marks fell as Bill Gibbs stretched the broad jump record, Don Lindsey set the record for the high jump, Gary Bowden and Mike West tied the pole vault record, and Karl Stadlmayr set the record in the 100- and 220-yard dash. Stadlmayer and Spurney served as co-captains for the squad which was coached by Garner Barnett, Cecil Crow, and William Lingenfelder

Members of the Bee and Cee squads also turned in outstanding performances. Randy McDonald turned in good times for the hurdles and 660. For the Cee team Richard Kaufman performed well in the broad jump and low hurdles; Brian Watanabe excelled in the 100- and 180-yard dash, Gregg Childress set a new record in the pole vault. Varsity record makers and outstanding Bee and Cee tracksters added up a successful season.

Two of GAA's activities were a demonstration night which included exhibitions of gymnastics, synchronized swimming, and modern dance, and a father-daughter sports night. At Christmas the girls had a can-stacking contest, and the donated canned food was given to needy families. The GAA bought a Polaroid camera that was given to the PE department. The money was acquired by a car wash and candy sales. A sports banquet climaxed the year's various athletic activities.
